Since 1960, WTBU has been entertaining the Boston University community and beyond. As Boston University’s only student-run radio station, WTBU offers 72 different shows to the Boston community, and broadcasts seven days a week for 20 hours a day. Signal for WTBU is available not only in all Boston University dorms and on BU Cable Channel 6, but also across the globe via our webpage.

In 2014, the College Media Journal Network, Inc. (CMJ) awarded WTBU as College Radio Station of the Year for the third year in a row. Our station’s website attracts over 500,000 page views, and averages over 11,000 views a month. We broadcast as a professional radio station while providing training and experience to BU students in a range of fields. Students work at the station on a volunteer basis and handle every aspect of the radio business, from managing and programming to advertising and on-air talent.

While we focus on broadcasting in an alternative format, WTBU features something for everyone. The station is home to shows that highlight different musical categories, including Top 40, Jazz/Blues, New World, Urban, Ska/Punk, Indie, Electronic and more. Our full programming schedule is also available on our website.

Approximately 50% of listeners are BU students in the Boston area, as well as listeners from other colleges such as Harvard, MIT, Boston College and Emerson. The other 50% of our audience is comprised of students from other colleges across the country, university alumni and families of students.

In March of 2016, the station suffered an unfortunate electrical fire, and thus we are using a temporary space on campus until a new studio is built sometime in the near future.
