

Jetson Leder-Luis
Financial Conflict of Interest Disclosures

Last Updated: November, 2024

Speaker Fees

I have received compensation in the form of honoraria, speaker fees, or one-time consulting fees for the following talks:

- 2024: University of Pennsylvania, Perelman School of Medicine. “Competition and Fraud in Health Care.”
- 2024: Industry Working Group, hosted at Harvard Medical School. “Dying or Lying: For-Profit Hospice and End of Life Care.”
- 2024: Mizuho Securities, “Digging Into Potential Healthcare Policy and Implications.”

Compensation:

- My ongoing project on Durable Medical Equipment fraud, and the effects of competition on health care fraud, is funded by Arnold Ventures, a non-partisan organization advancing evidence-based policy.
- I receive compensation for work related to False Claims Act litigation. The general nature of this work is data analysis and litigation strategy. Please contact me if you need additional details. I do not work on any lawsuits that overlap with my ongoing academic research or any grants I receive.
- My 2024 white paper “Measuring the Value of Health Care Anti-Fraud Efforts” was funded by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services through prime contractor General Dynamics Information Technology (GDIT), under a program called the Healthcare Fraud Prevention Partnership.
- My 2025 white paper on prevention measures for anti-fraud policy is funded by the Program Integrity Alliance, a nonpartisan non-profit organization based in Washington and funded by Arnold Ventures.