Public Service Note:

As of July, 2025, I serve as the Senior Advisor for Healthcare Fraud at the United States Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), Office of the Secretary, using up to 20% of my time as permitted by Boston University faculty policy. I have declined to take salary from HHS, but I receive travel funding and per diems for my trips to Washington, DC. I am a Special Government Employee and therefore bound by federal ethics rules. I am currently declining all new compensated work related to healthcare fraud.

Speaker and Consulting Fees:

I receive compensation in the form of honoraria, speaker fees, or consulting fees.

- 2024: University of Pennsylvania, Perelman School of Medicine
- 2024: Industry Working Group, hosted at Harvard Medical School
- 2024, 2025: Mizuho Securities, fireside chats with investors about health policy changes
- 2025: occasional one-off consulting through GLG expert network

Compensation for Work Product:

- My research project on anti-fraud spillovers to private markets, and a white paper on health care fraud strategy, is funded by Arnold Ventures, a non-partisan organization advancing evidence-based policy.
- My research project on Durable Medical Equipment fraud is funded by Arnold Ventures, a non-partisan organization advancing evidence-based policy.
- My 2025 white paper on prevention measures for anti-fraud policy was funded by the Program Integrity Alliance, a nonpartisan non-profit organization based in Washington.
- I have received equity and fee-based compensation for work related to False Claims Act litigation. The general nature of this work is data analysis and litigation strategy. I do not work on any lawsuits that overlap with my ongoing academic research or any grants I receive. Please contact me if you need additional details.
- I have received equity and fee-based compensation under consulting arrangements for investment advice related to detecting health care fraud in publicly traded companies. I do not work on any matters that overlap with my ongoing academic research or any grants I receive. Please contact me if you need additional details.

- My 2024 white paper “Measuring the Value of Health Care Anti-Fraud Efforts” was funded by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services through prime contractor General Dynamics Information Technology (GDIT), under a program called the Healthcare Fraud Prevention Partnership.
- I received a 1-time honorarium from the Cato Institute in 2025 for an economic policy brief authored by Cato based on my paper on revolving door lobbying laws
- I occasionally participate in compensated expert surveys that collect viewpoints and projection data.
