[See Yea and Nay No. 501 in Supplement.]

Therefore the bill was passed (notwithstanding the objections of the Governor), more than two-thirds of the members present and voting having agreed to pass the same. Sent to the Senate for its action.

Motions to Discharge Certain Matters in the Orders of the Day.

plans.

The engrossed Bill relative to school improvement plans (see House, No. 391, amended), which had been returned to the House by His Excellency the Governor, with recommendation of amendment (for message, see House, No. 4542), was discharged from its position in the Orders of the Day and considered, under suspension of Rule 47, on motion of Mrs. Haddad of Somerset.

The committee on Bills in the Third Reading reported recommending that the amendment recommended by the Governor be considered in the following form:

By striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the following:

“SECTION 1. The eleventh paragraph of section II of chapter 69 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the third and fourth sentences and inserting in place thereof the following sentence:— Each school improvement plan shall be submitted to the superintendent who shall review and approve the plan, after consultation with the school committee, not later than July 1 of the year in which the plan is to be implemented, according to a plan development and review schedule established by the district superintendent.

SECTION 2. Section 59C of chapter 71 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the fifth paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:—

The principal of each school, in consultation with the school council established pursuant to this section, shall on an annual basis, in conformity with section II of chapter 69, develop and submit to the district superintendent a plan for improving student performance. The superintendent shall review and approve the plan, after consultation with the school committee. Plans shall be prepared in a manner and form prescribed by the department of elementary and secondary education and shall conform to any policies and practices of the district consistent therewith. If the superintendent does not approve a plan submitted by the principal, the plan shall be returned to the principal who shall, after consultation with the school council, resubmit the plan to the superintendent who shall review and approve the resubmitted plan, after consultation with the school committee.”; and the report was accepted.

The amendment recommended by the Governor then was adopted. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Mrs. Haddad of Somerset being in the Chair,—

The engrossed Bill relative to disclosure of top contributors for independent expenditures or electioneering communications (see House, No. 543, amended), which had been returned to the House by His Excellency the Governor, with recommendation of amendments (for message, see House, No. 4543), was discharged from its position in the Orders of the Day and considered, under suspension of Rule 47, on motion of Mr. Bradley of Hingham.

Election campaigns,— contributor disclosure.

The committee on Bills in the Third Reading reported recommending that the amendments recommended by the Governor be considered in the following form:

In lines 4 and also in line 25 (as engrossed) by inserting after the word “communication” the words [A] “made by an individual group, association, corporation, labor union or other entity”; and in line 7 (as engrossed) by striking out the words “group or association” and inserting in place thereof the words [B] “group, association or labor union”; and the report was accepted.

Mr. Bradley of Hingham then moved that the amendments recommended by the Governor, as approved by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading, be amended by striking out [at “A”] the words “made by an individual group, association, corporation, labor union or other entity” and inserting in place thereof, in each instance, the words “made by an individual, corporation, group, association, labor union or other entity”; and by striking out [at “B”] the words “group, association or labor union” and inserting in place thereof the words “group, association, labor union or other entity”. The further amendments were adopted.

The amendments recommended by the Governor, as amended, then were adopted.

Mr. Lyons of Andover then moved to amend the bill by adding the following section:

“SECTION 2. Section 7A of said chapter 55, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after clause (c) the following new subsection:—

(d) If not otherwise limited by the provisions of section 6 or prohibited from making contributions under this chapter, the aggregate of all contributions by any group, association, labor union or other entity for the benefit of any one candidate and such candidate’s committee, or any other political committee, other than a ballot question committee, shall not exceed $1,000 in a calendar year.”

The amendment was rejected.

The same member then moved to amend the bill by striking out the emergency preamble; and by adding the following section:

“SECTION 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, the provisions of this bill shall not take effect until January 1, 2017.”

The amendments were rejected.

The bill then was sent to the Senate for its action.

The House Bill to correct procedural omission regarding actions against certain decedents under Uniform Probate Code (House, No. 1194), reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn, was discharged from its position in the Orders of the Day and read a third time, under suspension of Rule 47, on motion of Mrs. Haddad of Somerset. The bill then was passed to be engrossed. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Single risk limitations.

The House Bill relative to single risk limitations (House, No. 4203), reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn, was discharged from its position in the Orders of the Day and read a third time, under suspension of Rule 47, on motion of Mr. Michlewitz of Boston.

Pending the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, Mr. Speliotis of Danvers moved to amended it by striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the following:

“Chapter 175 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 21 and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 21. No company other than a life company or a financial guaranty insurance company shall insure in a single risk an amount larger than 10 per cent of its surplus to policyholders, unless it has reinsured, as provided in section 20, the excess over said limit to take effect simultaneously with the original contract. A financial guaranty insurance company shall be subject to the laws of the state in which it is domiciled for purposes of single risk limitations. A company violating this section shall be punished by a fine of $5,000 for each day during which such violation continues.

For the purposes of this section, ‘financial guaranty insurance company’, shall mean an insurance company that is licensed to transact insurance in the commonwealth, and that primarily issues insurance policies, surety bonds, indemnity contracts or any other similar guarantees under which loss is payable, upon proof of occurrence of a financial loss, to an insured.”

The amendment was adopted; and the bill (House, No. 4203, amended) was passed to be engrossed. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Vocational
opportunities.

The House Bill expanding educational opportunities for vocational students (House, No. 4271), reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn, was discharged from its position in the Orders of the Day and read a third time, under suspension of Rule 47, on motion of Mrs. Haddad of Somerset.

Pending the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, Mr. Speliotis of Danvers moved to amended it by striking all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the following:

“Chapter 149 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 62A the following section:—

Section 62B. The provisions of section 62 prohibiting a minor to work in the operation or management of hoisting machines or in operating a motor vehicle of any description shall not prohibit the operation or management of a hoisting machine or operating a motor vehicle; provided, however, that such minor is enrolled in a course of study and training in a vocational technical education program or a co-operative education program as defined in chapter 74; provided, further, that such minor shall be under the direct and close supervision of a qualified and experienced person; and provided further that such minor operating a motor vehicle has been issued the appropriate license by the registrar of motor vehicles to operate the motor vehicle.”

The amendment was adopted; and the bill (House, No. 4271, amended) was passed to be engrossed. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

The House Bill relative to the cultivation of marijuana and marijuana (House, No. 4326), reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn, was discharged from its position in the Orders of the Day and read a third time, under suspension of Rule 47, on motion of Mr. Mariano of Quincy. The bill then was passed to be engrossed. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Marijuana,
cultivation.

The House Bill authorizing Quincy College to confer baccalaureate degrees (House, No. 4403), reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn, was discharged from its position in the Orders of the Day and read a third time, under suspension of Rule 47, on motion of Mr. Mariano of Quincy.

Quincy College.

Pending the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, the same member moved to amend it by striking all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the following:

“SECTION 1. The board of governors of Quincy College may grant baccalaureate degrees, subject to the review and approval of the board of higher education pursuant to clause (a) of section 9 of chapter 15A of the General Laws. For the purpose of said clause (a) of said section 9, Quincy College shall only be assessed the fees and costs which are assessed to public institutions of higher education.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.”

The amendment was adopted; and the bill (House, No. 4403, amended) was passed to be engrossed. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Recess.

At three minutes after eight o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Donato of Medford (Mrs. Haddad of Somerset being in the Chair), the House recessed until the following day at twelve o'clock noon; and at seven minutes after the appointed time the House was called to order with Mr. Donato in the Chair.

Recess.

Sunday, July 31, 2016 (at 12:07 o'clock P.M.).

At the request of the Chair (Mr. Donato), the members, guests and employees joined with him in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Statement of Representative Fernandes of Milford.

A statement of Mr. Fernandes of Milford was spread upon the records of the House, as follows:

Statement of
Mr. Fernandes
of Milford.

MR. SPEAKER: I would like to call to the attention of the House the fact that I was unable to be present in the House Chamber for yesterday's session due to personal matters. Had I been present, I would have voted in the affirmative on all of the roll calls on passing items and sections notwithstanding the actions of the Governor, and also in the affirmative on all of the land taking roll call votes taken. My missing of roll calls yesterday was due entirely to the reason stated.

Appointment to a Special Commission.

Post-Deployment Commission.

The Minority Leader announced that he had appointed Representative DeCoste of Norwell as his designee to serve on the Massachusetts Post-Deployment Special Commission established (under Section 26 of Chapter 141 of the Acts of 2016) to make recommendations relative to the implementation of a program to support service members transitioning to civilian life after deployment.

Order.

On motion of Mr. Galvin of Canton,—

Ride for hire
bill conferees,— voting.

Ordered, That, notwithstanding any rule to the contrary, a court officer shall be assigned to cast roll call votes, except quorum roll calls, for Representatives Michlewitz of Boston, Mariano of Quincy and Hill of Ipswich during their negotiations and deliberations on the committee of conference on the ride for hire bill.

Papers from the Senate.

Mr. Donato of Medford being in the Chair,—

Wakefield,—
land.

The House Bill authorizing the town of Wakefield to exchange a certain parcel of land (House, No. 3629), came from the Senate passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, with an amendment in line 13, inserting after the word "Laws" the following: "; and provided further, that no conveyances under this act shall be completed until a certificate of redemption for parcel 33-185-24A has been recorded in the Middlesex south district registry of deeds". The amendment was referred, under Rule 35, to the committee on Bills in the Third Reading.

Said committee then reported that the amendment was correctly drawn; and it was adopted, in concurrence.

Springfield,—
land.

The House Bill authorizing the city of Springfield to convey a certain parcel of real property to the Greater Springfield Habitat for Humanity (House, No. 3948) (its title having been changed by the Senate committee on Bills in the Third Reading), came from the Senate passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, with an amendment in section 1, in line 2, inserting after the word "contrary" the following: "; but subject to paragraphs (a), (b) and (g) of section 16 of chapter 30B". The amendment was referred, under Rule 35, to the committee on Bills in the Third Reading.

Said committee then reported that the amendment was correctly drawn; and it was adopted, in concurrence.

Mrs. Haddad of Somerset being in the Chair,—

The House Bill authorizing the conveyance of a certain parcel of land in the town of Chesterfield to Denise T. Cormier (House, No. 4469, amended), came from the Senate passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, with amendments in section 1, in lines 3 and 4, striking out the words “certain parcel of land” and inserting in place thereof the following: “portion of a certain parcel of land identified as ‘Lot B’ in a deed recorded with the Hampshire registry of deeds in book 6125, page 131, such portion to be determined and surveyed by the division of capital asset management and maintenance, with the approval of department of conservation and recreation,”; and adding the following section:

Chesterfield,—
land.

“SECTION 4. To ensure a no-net-loss of lands protected for conservation and recreation purposes and as a condition of the easement authorized in this act, the grantee shall compensate the commonwealth through the payment of funds or the transfer of land or a conservation restriction upon land to the department of conservation and recreation which shall be equal to or greater than the full and fair market value or value in use, whichever is greater, of its interest under this act as determined by independent appraisal prepared in accordance with the usual and customary professional appraisal practices by a qualified appraiser commissioned by the commissioner of capital asset management and maintenance, in consultation with the commissioner of conservation and recreation. Any land or interest in land, including any conservation restriction, shall be acceptable to the department of conservation and recreation. Any sums due under this section shall be paid by the grantee to the department of conservation and recreation for deposit into the Conservation Trust established in section 1 of chapter 132A of the General Laws to be used to acquire land or interests in land for conservation and recreation purposes.”

The amendments were referred, under Rule 35, to the committee on Bills in the Third Reading. Said committee then reported that the amendments were correctly drawn; and they were adopted, in concurrence.

The House Bill authorizing the Massachusetts Department of Transportation to acquire certain parcels of land in the city known as the town of Weymouth (House, No. 4548) (its title having been changed by the Senate committee on Bills in the Third Reading), came from the Senate passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, with an amendment adding the following section:

Weymouth,—
land.

“SECTION 2. As a condition of the conveyance authorized in section 1, the Massachusetts Department of Transportation shall transfer a parcel of land under the care, custody, management and control of the department and dedicated for general departmental purposes to the city known as the town of Weymouth and such parcel shall be dedicated for conservation purposes. If no suitable parcel can be transferred to the town, the department shall compensate the town through the payment of funds that shall be equal to or greater than the full and fair market value or value in use, whichever is greater, of the conveyance as determined by independent appraisal prepared in accordance with the usual and customary professional appraisal practices by a qualified appraiser with which the town shall acquire a parcel of land or a conservation restriction upon private land as defined in section 31 of chapter 184 of the General Laws. The land shall be dedicated or restricted to conservation purposes under the jurisdiction of the town. The parcel dedicated pursuant to this section, shall be of equal or greater size and value for conservation purposes when compared to the parcel described in said section 1.”

The amendment was referred, under Rule 35, to the committee on Bills in the Third Reading. Said committee then reported that the amendment was correctly drawn; and it was adopted, in concurrence.

Rehoboth,—
land.

The House Bill authorizing the town of Rehoboth to transfer a conservation easement on a certain parcel of land (House, No. 4158), came from the Senate passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, with an amendment striking out section 2 and inserting in place thereof the following two sections:

“SECTION 2. As a condition of the conveyance authorized in section 1, the town of Rehoboth shall transfer a parcel of land under the care, custody, management and control of the board of selectmen and dedicated for general municipal purposes to the conservation commission and such parcel shall be dedicated for conservation purposes. If no suitable parcel can be transferred to the conservation commission, the town shall acquire a parcel of land or a conservation restriction upon private land as defined at section 31 of chapter 184 of the General Laws. Such land shall be dedicated or restricted to conservation purposes and shall be under the jurisdiction of the conservation commission. The parcel of land dedicated pursuant to this section, shall be of equal or greater size and value for conservation when compared to the parcel described in section 1.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.”

The amendment was referred, under Rule 35, to the committee on Bills in the Third Reading.

Boston,—
land.

A Bill authorizing the conveyance of a certain parcel of land in the city of Boston to the Haitian Church of the Nazarene Friends of the Humbles and the Greater Boston Nazarene Compassionate Center (Senate, No. 1646, changed) (on a petition), passed to be engrossed by the Senate, was read; and it was referred, under Rule 33, to the committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Dempsey of Haverhill, for said committee, reported that the bill ought to pass. Referred, under Rule 7A, to the committee on Steering, Policy and Scheduling.

Mr. Nangle of Lowell, for said committee, reported that the matter be scheduled for consideration by the House.

Under suspension of the rules, on motion of the same member, the bill was read a second time forthwith; and it was ordered to a third reading.

Subsequently, under further suspension of the rules, on motion of Mrs. Haddad of Somerset, the bill (having been reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn) was read a third time; and it was passed to be engrossed, in concurrence.

No. 558.

On the question on passing the bill to be enacted, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays (this being a “loan” bill as defined by Section 3 of Article LXII of the Amendments to the Constitution); and on the roll call 157 members voted in the affirmative and 9 in the negative.

[See Yea and Nay No. 558 in Supplement.]

Therefore the bill was passed to be enacted; and it was signed by the acting Speaker and sent to the Senate.

Boston,—
land.

The engrossed Bill authorizing the conveyance of a certain parcel of land in the city of Boston to the Haitian Church of the Nazarene Friends of the Humbls and the Greater Boston Nazarene Compassionate Center (see Senate, No. 1646, changed), having been certified by the Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage, was considered, the question being on adopting the emergency preamble.

A separate vote was taken, as required by the provisions of Article XLVIII (as amended by Article LXVII) of the Amendments to the Constitution; and the preamble was adopted, by a vote of 76 to 0. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Subsequently, the Senate having concurred in adoption of the emergency preamble, the bill (which originated in the Senate) was put upon its final passage.

Bill enacted (land taking),— yea and nay
No. 559.

On the question on passing the bill to be enacted, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays (this being a bill providing for the taking of land or other easements used for conservation purposes, etc., as defined by Article XCVII of the Amendments to the Constitution); and on the roll call (Mr. Donato of Medford being in the Chair) 157 members voted in the affirmative and 0 in the negative.

[See Yea and Nay No. 559 in Supplement.]

Therefore the bill was passed to be enacted; and it was signed by the acting Speaker and sent to the Senate.

Engrossed Bill.

The engrossed Bill regulating transportation network companies (see House, No. 4570) (which originated in the House), having been certified by the Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage, was passed to be enacted; and it was signed by the acting Speaker and sent to the Senate.

Bill

Pending the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, in concurrence, Mr. Fernandes of Milford moved to amend it in section 2, in line 8, by inserting after the word “section” the following: “15,” and, in lines 15, 16 and 17, by striking out the sentence contained in those lines; by striking out sections 3 and 4; in section 8, in lines 244, 245 and 246, by striking out the paragraph contained in those lines, after line 302, by inserting the following paragraph:

“(k) This section shall not require a notary public to use the forms in section 15 if the form of acknowledgment, jurat, signature witnessing or copy certification appears on a printed form that contains an express prohibition against altering such form”, and, in line 395, by striking out the words “complies with the requirements of this chapter,” and inserting in place thereof the words “is substantially similar in legal meaning and effect to the texts of the several forms set forth in this chapter or in the appendix to chapter 183”.

The amendments were adopted; and the bill (Senate, No. 2064, amended) was passed to be engrossed, in concurrence. Sent to the Senate for concurrence in the amendment adopted by the House [see House document numbered 4398, amended].

William
sick leave.

The House Bill establishing a sick leave bank for William Horohoe, an employee of the Massachusetts Department of Transportation (House, No. 4480), reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn, was discharged from its position in the Orders of the Day and read a third time, under suspension of Rule 47, on motion of Mr. Tucker of Andover.

Pending the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, Mr. Speliotis of Danvers moved to amend it by striking out section 2; and by inserting before the enacting clause the following emergency preamble:

“Whereas, the deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is forthwith to establish a sick leave bank for a certain employee of the Massachusetts Department of Transportation, therefore it is hereby declared an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.”

The amendments were adopted; and the bill (House, No. 4480, amended) was passed to be engrossed. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Jamie
sick leave.

The House Bill establishing a sick leave bank for Jamie Mascarello, an employee of the Office of the Commissioner of Probation (House, No. 4481), reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn, was discharged from its position in the Orders of the Day and read a third time, under suspension of Rule 47, on motion of Mr. Tucker of Andover.

Pending the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, Mr. Speliotis of Danvers moved to amend it by inserting before the enacting clause the following emergency preamble:

“Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to establish forthwith a sick leave bank for a certain employee of the office of the commissioner of probation, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.”

The amendment was adopted; and the bill (House, No. 4481, amended) was passed to be engrossed. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.
