

Amendment #14 to H4667*Education of public

Mr. Donato of Medford moves to amend the bill in Section 4 in line 102 by striking out the words” work with the state secretary to insure, by public education and other methods, that information sufficient to understand the process for and consequences of automatic voter registration is available in any language that is the primary language of at least 10,000 or 1/2 of 1 per cent of all residents of the commonwealth.” And inserting in place thereof the words “work with the state secretary to insure, by public education and other methods, that information sufficient to understand the process for and consequences of automatic voter registration is available in all languages as required by the Voting Rights Act and all languages the agency offers or provides services in.”