Reconsideration.

Ms. L'Italien moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which, at a previous session, it had passed to be engrossed the Senate Bill protecting consumers in the issuance of sports and entertainment tickets (Senate, No. 115); and, there being no objection, the motion prevailed.

Tickets,-- consumer protection.

Pending the recurring question on passing the bill to be engrossed, Ms. L'Italien moved to amend the bill by adding the following sections:-

“SECTION 2. Section 185A of chapter 140 of the General Laws, as appearing in 2016 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following paragraph:-

‘Ticket reseller’ shall mean any person, entity, corporation or association engaged in the business of reselling, offering for resale, or negotiating the resale of tickets of admission or other evidence of right of entry to any sporting event, theatrical exhibition, public show, or public amusement or exhibition, including the officers, agents and employees of such person, entity, corporation or association. A person, entity, corporation, or association shall be deemed to be ‘engaged in the business of resale’ if such person, entity, corporation, or association has sold more than 80 tickets, sets of tickets, or right of entry by means of telephone, mail, delivery service, facsimile, internet, email or other electronic means in the preceding twelve months. A resale shall not include the initial sale of any event ticket by the original ticket seller or an online marketplace.

SECTION 3. Said section 185A of chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by deleting the second paragraph of this section.

SECTION 4. Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out section 185D, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 185D. Consumer protection standards relative to the reselling of tickets:

(a) Any person engaged in the business of the resale of a ticket, and any online marketplace shall:

UNCORRECTED PROOF.

(1) maintain at all times a toll-free telephone number and an e-mail address or other means of contact approved by regulation for complaints and inquiries regarding its activities in the resale of event tickets;

(2) implement and reasonably publicize a standard refund policy that meets the minimum standards stated in subsection (b); and

(3) take reasonable measures to safeguard against the resale of counterfeit tickets purchased from the reseller.

(b) The standard refund policy by such person or online marketplace:

(1) shall provide a consumer who purchases an event ticket a full refund if: (i) the event is cancelled before the scheduled occurrence of the event, and is not re-scheduled; (ii) the event ticket does not provide access to the event or venue of the event, provided the date and time of the event are correct on the event ticket; (iii) the event ticket has been cancelled by the ticket issuer for non-payment by the original purchaser, or for any reason other than an act or omission of the consumer; (iv) the event ticket materially and to the detriment of the consumer fails to conform to the description provided by the seller or person engaged in the business of resale; or (v) the event ticket was not delivered to the consumer prior to the occurrence of the event, unless such failure of delivery was due to any act or omission of the consumer;

(2) shall include in a full refund the full price paid by the consumer for the event ticket, together with any fees charged in connection with that purchase, including but not limited to convenience fees, processing fees, at-home printing charges, but excluding shipping or delivery fees, and

(3) may condition entitlement to a refund upon timely return of the ticket purchased, and may include reasonable safeguards against abuse of the policy.

(c) Provision of a replacement ticket that is of equal value and in a comparable location, at no additional charge to the consumer, shall be considered providing a full refund for the purposes of subsection (b).

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any person, entity or association, or an agent of any such person, entity or association subject to this section from implementing consumer protection policies that exceed the minimum standard set forth in this section, and that are otherwise compliant with this act.

(e) A ticket reseller or online marketplace shall be prohibited from using any automated system, software or other technology designed or produced for the purpose of purchasing tickets from a ticket issuer for the purpose of resale on the secondary market.

(f) The department of public safety shall keep a record of all licensed ticket resellers operating in the commonwealth and shall make the list accessible to the public. This record shall include, but not be limited to: (1) the licensee's name, mailing address, telephone number and email address; (2) the length of time the licensee has been licensed in commonwealth; and (3) the number of complaints and the type of complaint that has been filed against the licensee.

SECTION 5. Section 185E of chapter 140 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, is hereby amended by deleting the last sentence of this section."

The amendment was adopted.

The bill (Senate, No. 115, amended) was then again passed to be engrossed.

Sent to the House for concurrence.

Recess.

There being no objection, at twenty-three minutes past eleven o'clock A.M., the Chair (Mr. Brownsberger) declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair; and, at twenty-six minutes before three o'clock A.M., the Senate reassembled, Mr. Brownsberger in the Chair.

The yeas and nays having been completed at fourteen minutes before nine o'clock P.M., the bill was passed to be enacted, two-thirds of the members present having agreed to pass the same, and it was signed by the Acting President (Ms. Creem) and laid before the Governor for his approbation.

Engrossed Bill.

An engrossed Bill relative to background record check procedures of the Department of Early Education and Care (see House, No. 4815, amended) (which originated in the House), having been certified by the Senate Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage, was passed to be enacted and signed by the Acting President (Ms. Creem) and laid before the Governor for his approbation.

Bill laid before the Governor.

Engrossed Bills Returned with Recommendation of Amendment.

A Message from His Excellency the Governor, returning with recommendation of amendment the engrossed Bill relative to the cremation of certain unclaimed bodies (see House, No. 4822) [being the text contained in Section 38 of the General Appropriations Bill (see House, No. 4800)] (for message, see Attachment D of House, No. 4833),— came from the House with an amendment in the form approved by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading as follows:-

Unclaimed bodies.

By striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the following:

“SECTION 1. Section 43M of chapter 114 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:-

Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary and for the purposes of this section, a board of health may serve as the duly authorized representative for the purpose of requesting cremation of unclaimed remains by signing a cremation form under the following circumstances: (i) the unclaimed remains shall be in a location that is within the jurisdiction of the board of health; (ii) the board of health has received notice from a licensed funeral director that either no person has come forward to claim the remains or that no person may legally claim the remains; provided, however, that the board of health shall wait 30 days after such notification under this clause prior to signing the cremation form. The unclaimed remains shall then be viewed by a medical examiner or forensic investigator designated by the chief medical examiner pursuant to section 14 of chapter 38, who shall authorize such cremation only when no further examination or judicial inquiry concerning the death is necessary. The office of the chief medical examiner may waive the fee set forth in said section 14 of said chapter 38 for cremation authorizations pursuant to this section. There shall be no liability for a board of health or an employee, agent, or licensee thereof that authorizes the disposal of unclaimed remains in accordance with this section. Nothing in this section shall supersede the obligations of the office of the chief medical examiner as set forth in this chapter and chapter 38.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect as of July 1, 2018.”

The message was read; and, under the provisions of Article LVI of the Amendments to the Constitution, the bill was before the Senate subject to amendment and re-enactment.

The rules were suspended, on motion of Ms. Chandler, and the Governor’s amendment was considered forthwith.

After remarks, on motion of the same Senator, the Governor’s amendment was adopted, in concurrence.

Sent to the House for re-enactment.

A Message from His Excellency the Governor, returning with recommendation of amendment the engrossed Bill relative to commuter rail fare rates (see House, No. 4828) [being the text contained in Section 87 of the General Appropriations Bill (see House, No. 4800)] (for message, see Attachment J of House, No. 4833),— came from the House with an amendment in the form approved by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading as follows:-

Commuter rail,-- rates.

“SECTION 1. The Massachusetts Department of Transportation shall complete a comprehensive review and study of the current methods utilized to set fare rates on the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority commuter rail. The study shall include, but not be limited to, an examination of: (i) the fairness and equity of the current distance based fare system that utilizes fare zones; (ii) pricing based on track distance from the terminal station; (iii) the impacts of commuter rail fare price on passengers’ transportation choices, considering frequency of service, travel time and parking costs, between commuter rail, motor vehicle transportation, public bus and subway service; (iv) the potential for lower interzone fares to encourage ridership outside core central stations; (v) the potential for discounted fares for riders in gateway cities or similarly situated municipalities; and (vi) the potential for utilizing a variable pricing system based on the time of day; and (vii) the impact on any of these changes on fare revenue.

To complete the study, the department shall utilize, to the extent possible, updated passenger counts at all commuter rail stations for the most recent calendar year, including data collected using an automated passenger count system from all commuter rail cars. The Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority shall use the outcome of the study and the data collection to inform fare policy decisions. The department shall submit a written report of its findings, including recommendations, with the clerks of the senate and the house of representatives, the senate and house committees on ways and means and the joint committee on transportation not later than March 15, 2020.

The message was read; and, under the provisions of Article LVI of the Amendments to the Constitution, the bill was before the Senate subject to amendment and re-enactment.

The rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Barrett, and the Governor's amendment was considered forthwith.

After remarks, on motion of Mr. Boncore, the Governor's amendment was adopted, in concurrence.

Sent to the House for re-enactment.

A Message from His Excellency the Governor, returning with recommendation of amendment the engrossed Bill relative to the Massachusetts Department of Transportation congestion toll rate pricing pilot program (see House, No. 4831) [being the text contained in Section 104 of the General Appropriations Bill (see House, No. 4800)] (for message, see Attachment M of House, No. 4833),-- came from the House with the endorsement that the House had rejected the amendment recommended by the Governor, (as approved by the House Committee on Bills in the Third Reading).
