HOUSE No. 2274

By Representative Donato of Medford and Senator Jehlen, a joint petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2274) of Paul J. Donato and others relative to guidelines for guardians of minor children. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act to promote the well-being of minor children living with guardians.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 5-106 of chapter 190B of the General Laws is hereby amended by 2 inserting the following new subsections:-

3 (e) For proceedings pursuant to a petition to remove a guardian of a minor child, the 4 guardian shall have and be informed of the right to counsel, and the court shall appoint counsel if 5 the guardian is financially unable to retain counsel, when the guardian makes an initial showing 6 that he or she has been the primary caretaker for the child for at least two years or otherwise for a 7 significant part of the child’s lifetime. This time period may include caretaking provided during 8 the guardianship or before the guardian was appointed.

9 (f) The court may appoint counsel to represent a guardian of a minor during proceedings 10 pursuant to Article V of this chapter if the guardian is financially unable to retain counsel and the 11 court determines at any time in the proceedings that the interest of the guardian is or may be 12 inadequately represented.

13 (g) The court may appoint counsel to represent a prospective guardian of a minor child 14 upon a petition to establish a guardianship if the prospective guardian is financially unable to 15 retain counsel, the petitioner has presented a meritorious claim that the conditions in section 5-16 206(c) of this chapter have been met, and the court determines that the interest of the prospective 17 guardian is or may be inadequately represented.

18 (h) Any living parent of a minor child whose parental rights have not been terminated 19 shall have and be informed of the right to counsel, and the court shall appoint counsel if the 20 parent or parents are financially unable to retain counsel, when said parent objects to 21 appointment of a guardian of a minor child or when the parent presents a meritorious claim in 22 petitioning to terminate or modify the guardianship of a minor child.

23 SECTION 2. Section 5-204 of said chapter 190B, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 24 inserting, after subsection (a), the following new subsection:-

25 (b) When the court establishes a guardianship of a minor who has at least one living 26 parent whose parental rights have not been terminated, the court's reasons for establishing the 27 guardianship, the petitioner's reasons for petitioning for guardianship, and the parent's reasons 28 for consenting or objecting to the guardianship shall be noted in the order.

29 SECTION 3. Section 5-212 of said chapter 190B, as appearing in the 2014 Official 30 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "removal", in line 15, the following 31 words:-

32 "brought by someone other than a parent whose parental rights have not been 33 terminated".

34 SECTION 4. Said section 5-212 of said chapter 190B, as so appearing, is hereby further 35 amended by inserting the following new subsections:-

36 (d) After notice and hearing on a petition for removal of a guardian brought by a parent 37 whose parental rights have not been terminated, the court may terminate the guardianship if the 38 minor's parent or parents show by a preponderance of the evidence that the impediments to the 39 parent's custody listed in the order pursuant to G.L. c. 190B, § 5-204(b) have been removed and 40 they are currently fit to parent the child, unless the guardian establishes by clear and convincing 41 evidence that termination of the guardianship would not be in the best interests of the minor. It is 42 presumed that the best interests of the child would not be served by terminating the guardianship 43 if a parent has filed a petition for termination in the past 6 months and such petition was not 44 dismissed under this clause. This presumption may be overcome by clear and convincing 45 evidence. The court may enter orders to facilitate the minor's reintegration into the home of the 46 parent or parents for a reasonable period before the termination.

47 (e) In determining parental fitness for purposes of G.L. c. 190B, § 5-212(d), the court 48 shall determine the ability and willingness of the parent or parents to provide a safe, nurturing 49 environment for the minor.

50 (f) In determining what constitutes the best interest of the ward for purposes of G.L. c.
51 190B, § 5-212(d), the court shall consider the physical, emotional, and educational well-being of 52 the child. In so doing, the court shall look to the history of caregiving or parenting by the parent 53 and the guardian and each party's current ability and willingness to care for the child.
