Order Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Fattman,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again on Thursday next at eleven o'clock A.M., and that the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Time of meeting.

Adjournment in Memory of Madeline Varitimos.

The Senator from Essex, Ms. DiZoglio, moved that when the Senate adjourns today it do so in memory of Madeline Varitimos of Methuen.

Madeline (Broaca) Varitimos passed away peacefully after a short period of declining health on Tuesday, August 24, 2021.

Madeline was born in Lawrence, Massachusetts, daughter of the late Victor and Stephanie (Orpel) Broaca. She attended St. Laurence O'Toole and was a proud member of Lawrence High School, class of 1957. Madeline attended Merrimack College and took several classes at the University of Massachusetts Lowell.

She was President and CEO of Hi-Ridge Manufacturing, worked for many years for the Methuen Public School Department, and retired from working life as Executive Assistant for the City of Methuen. Madeline also cherished her role as business partner in Madeline & Pollard, a clothing boutique in Andover.

Much of Madeline's personal and professional life was dedicated to community activism and service. She took great joy in helping others and improving her adopted hometown of Methuen.

Madeline turned her passion for historic preservation into a role as a founding member of the Tenney Preservation Association. It was thanks to her tireless advocacy, organization, and work in the early 1980s to mobilize residents and government to save the former Tenney Estate that these beloved treasures are still here for us to enjoy today.

Madeline served on the City of Methuen's Historic District Commission, Conservation Commission, and Edwin J. Castle Fund, and was most recently Chairwoman of the Board of Registrars. She was also a member of the Friends of the Nevins Library and a longtime supporter and volunteer at the Methuen Festival of Trees. Madeline also gave her time to the Board of the Stephen Barker PTO.

She was also known for being quick to lend a hand and was a regular in Massachusetts politics. A "volunteer's volunteer," she was forever knocking on doors, leading phone banks, and arguing passionately with friends, family, and strangers about the issues of the day. She was a leader in the local chapter of the League of Women Voters, attended local and state-wide caucuses and was named Democrat of the Year in 1996. She served on the Commonwealth's Energy Facilities Siting Council at the appointment of Governor Michael Dukakis.

Faith was central to Madeline's life. After converting to Greek Orthodoxy in 1968. She served as Treasurer of the Ladies Philoptochos for many years. Proud of her Polish and Lithuanian heritage, she nonetheless became an ardent Hellene, mastering Greek cooking and traditions.

Yet nothing held a larger place in Madeline's life than her family and friends. She was a huge proponent of the "big tent" approach to life—the more people, the better. She loved to entertain, keeping her heart and home open to anyone who wanted to be in it. Madeline enjoyed 53 years of magic with her husband, Ted—who never stopped making her smile and blush with his piercing blue eyes. Her loss leaves a hole in the hearts of so many.

Madeline is survived by her husband, Theodore Varitimos, and their two children, Antonina Edwards and her husband, Charles of Charlotte, NC, and Eleni Varitimos and her husband, Kevin Higginbottom of Methuen; as well as her cherished sister, Elizabeth Heffernan of Andover. She also leaves behind four grandchildren: Stephanie Margaret Edwards, Theodore Richard Higginbottom, Madeline Pamela Edwards, and Henry James Tiberius Higginbottom. Also left to mourn are her brother-in-law, Nick Varitimos; a niece and nephew; several great-nieces, great-nephews, and many cousins.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Madeline Varitimos, at twenty minutes before twelve o'clock noon, on motion of Fattman, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Thursday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
