

Requires public school districts to include descriptions of nutrition and wellness programs in annual reports submitted to the Department of Education.