

Establishes and regulates the Governor's Commission on Childhood Obesity for the purpose of developing and coordinating a statewide plan for the reduction of childhood obesity through evidence-based nutrition and exercise programs; directs the Department of Public Health to establish guidelines for the training of public school nurses on recognition and treatment of eating disorders and type 2 diabetes; requires statewide standards for schools established by the Board of Education include instruction on nutrition and exercise; directs the Department of Public Health to establish guidelines for the implementation of nutrition standards for competitive foods and beverages sold or provided in schools; establishes criteria for consideration in said guidelines; requires said departments review and analyze the trend in reported cases of obesity and eating disorders in students.