

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE.

Thursday, October 25, 2007.

Met according to adjournment, at eleven o'clock A.M., with Mr. Petrolati of Ludlow in the Chair (having been appointed by the Speaker, under authority conferred by Rule 5, to perform the duties of the Chair).

Prayer was offered by the Reverend Robert F. Quinn, C.S.P., Chaplain of the House, as follows:

Eternal God, we pause for a moment of relection, prayer and to focus our attention on You. We believe that Your assistance enables us to organize our agenda and priorities for the day in an orderly and wise manner. With Your guidance and direction we can understand even the most complex issues more clearly as we struggle to serve constituents and to define the meaning of the common good. In this age of diverse communities with a variety of cultures may we continue as a society to respect the dignity and the civil, human and religious rights and beliefs of all people from the youngest child to the most senior adult.

Grant Your blessings to the Speaker, the members and employees of this House and their families. Amen.

At the request of the Chair (Mr. Petrolati), the members, guests and employees joined with him in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Statement Concerning Representative Kaufman of Lexington.

A statement of Mr. Rushing of Boston concerning Mr. Kaufman of Lexington, was spread upon the records of the House, as follows:

MR. SPEAKER: I would like to call to the attention of the House the fact that one of our colleagues, Representative Kaufman of Lexington, will not be present in the House Chamber for today's sitting due to official committee business. No. 196.

On the question on passing the bill to be enacted, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays (this being a bill providing for the taking of land or other easements used for conservation purposes, etc., as defined by Article XCVII of the Amendments to the Constitution); and on the roll call 148 members voted in the affirmative and 0 in the negative.

[See Yea and Nay No. 196 in Supplement.]

Therefore the bill was passed to be enacted; and it was signed by the acting Speaker and sent to the Senate.

Orders of the Day.

Tidelands,
licensing requirements.

The report of the committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two branches with reference to the Senate amendments of the House Bill relative to the licensing requirements for certain tidelands (House, No. 4184, amended), recommending a bill with the same title (House, No. 4324), was considered.

After debate on the question on acceptance of the report, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays, at the request of Mr. Smizik of Brookline; and on the roll call 148 members voted in the affirmative and 3 in the negative.

[See Yea and Nay No. 197 in Supplement.]

Therefore the report of the committee of conference was accepted. The report then was sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Report of committee of conference accepted,
yea and nay
No. 197.

Commonwealth Corps.

The Senate Bill relative to establishing the Commonwealth Corps (Senate, No. 2301, amended) was read a second time.

The amendment previously recommended by the committee on Ways and Means,— that the bill be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the text contained in House document numbered 4322,— was adopted.

The bill (Senate, No. 2301, amended) then was ordered to a third reading.

Subsequently under suspension of the rules, on motion of Mr. Cabral of New Bedford, the bill (having been reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn) was read a third time.

Pending the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, Mr. Peterson of Grafton asked for a count of the House to ascertain if a quorum was present. The Chair (Mr. Petrolati of Ludlow), having determined that a quorum was not in attendance, then directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to secure the presence of a quorum.

Subsequently a roll call was taken for the purpose of ascertaining the presence of a quorum; and on the roll call 149 members were recorded as being in attendance.

[See Yea and Nay No. 198 in Supplement.]

Therefore a quorum was present.

Mr. Cabral of New Bedford then moved to amend the bill in section 10, in paragraph (b), after the word “following:” by inserting the words “(i) coordinating with other private and public entities including the agency, the Massachusetts department of education, and the Massachusetts board of higher education to promote the development and advancement of service learning opportunities for students in the commonwealth”; and, at the end of said paragraph (b), after the word “professionals” by inserting the words “(vii) disseminating information identifying best practices related to service learning programs and policies to educational institutions in the commonwealth;”. After remarks the amendments were adopted.

The same member then moved to amend the bill in section 6, in paragraph (a), by striking out the word “Said” and inserting in place thereof the following: “Unless the governor has applied for and received approval pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 12638 to utilize an alternative administrative agency, said”; and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Jones of North Reading and other members of the House then moved to amend the bill by adding at the end thereof the following section:

“SECTION 12. Chapter 29 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding after section 31E the following section:—

Section 31F. Notwithstanding any special or general law to the contrary, no state employee, during working hours, may participate in the State Employees Responding as Volunteers program, or any program of a similar intent, and receive their regular salary from the Commonwealth for such hours of voluntary service.

This section shall not apply to those employees performing voluntary service under section 31E of this chapter.”.

After debate on the question on adoption of the amendment, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays, at the request of Mr. Humason of Westfield; and on the roll call 38 members voted in the affirmative and 110 in the negative.

[See Yea and Nay No. 199 in Supplement.]

Therefore the amendment was rejected.

On the question on passing the bill, as amended, to be engrossed, in concurrence, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays, at the request of Mr. Cabral of New Bedford; and on the roll call (Ms. Kaprielian of Watertown being in the Chair) 123 members voted in the affirmative and 26 in the negative.

[See Yea and Nay No. 200 in Supplement.]

Therefore the bill (Senate, No. 2301, amended) was passed to be engrossed, in concurrence. Sent to the Senate for concurrence in the amendment [see House, No. 4322, printed as amended] adopted by the House.

Order.

On motion of Mr. DiMasi of Boston,—
Ordered. That when the House adjourns today, it adjourn to meet on Monday next at twelve o'clock noon.
