Massachusetts House of Representatives
2010 Regular Session

Met at nine minutes after one o'clock P.M., with Mr. Petrolati of Ludlow in the Chair (having been appointed by the Speaker, under authority conferred by Rule 5, to perform the duties of the Chair).

Prayer was offered by the Reverend Robert F. Quinn, C.S.P., Chaplain of the House, as follows:

Ever-present God in Whom we place our trust and hope, we begin today's formal legislative session with the intention of addressing the items which come before us in a carefully reasoned and honorable manner. In our diverse society, help us to be good and patient listeners as we examine the day's legislative proposals. When there are issues of disagreement on principles, goals and values, teach us to respect the opinions, rights and the dignity of all as we dialogue together on legislative matters. We pray for the courage and good sense to remain faithful to our own philosophical principles and religious beliefs. Help us to be grateful for our privileges as citizens, mindful of our obligations and duties as elected officials and open to You and Your ways and commandments in our daily living.

Grant Your blessings to the Speaker, the members and employees this House and their families. Amen.

At the request of the Chair (Mr. Petrolati), the members, guests and employees joined with him in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag.
