

Amendment to S. 63

By inserting the following sentence at the end of Section 2B subsection (a) as inserted by SECTION 1 of Senate 63:- "If an adopted person is deceased, his child, if he is 18 years or older, or the child's guardian if the child is under 18 years of age, shall have the same rights as those of the adopted person under this section.

Deleted: section 1 the following sentence.