

Wednesday, November 18, 2009.

Met according to adjournment, at eleven o'clock A.M., with Mr. Donato of Medford in the Chair (having been appointed by the Speaker, under authority conferred by Rule 5, to perform the duties of the Chair).

Prayer was offered by the Reverend Robert F. Quinn, C.S.P., Chaplain of the House, as follows:

God, Our Creator, this moment of reflection and prayer at the opening of today's formal legislative session is a reminder of Your presence and availability to us. Therefore we pray for truth in our minds, light in our consciences and love in our hearts. In Your goodness, help us to implement these special gifts from You as we carry out our tasks and responsibilities during the course of this and every day. In dealing with current, often complex, public policy issues and administrative proposals, inspire us to remain faithful to our high personal standards and our human and spiritual values. In addressing economic and social challenges, may we remember the dedication and the courage of the elected leaders who have gone before us in this House. May we continue to make the Commonwealth a place of excellence in scientific reason, life sciences, education and in meeting the needs of all people.

Grant Your blessings to the Speaker, the members and employees of this House and their families. Amen.

At the request of the Chair (Mr. Donato), the members, guests and employees joined with him in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Silent Prayer.

At the request of Representative deMacedo of Plymouth, the members, guests and employees stood in a moment of silent prayer in respect to the memory of Army Specialist Benjamin William Sherman of Plymouth.

Fiscal stability.

By Mr. Murphy of Burlington, for the committee on Ways and Means, on House, No. 4303, a Bill implementing fiscal stability measures for fiscal year 2010 (House, No. 4348). Read; and referred, under Rule 7A, to the committee on Steering, Policy and Scheduling.

Mr. Kafka of Stoughton, for said committee, then reported recommending that the matter be scheduled for consideration by the House.

Under suspension of the rules, on motion of the same member, the bill was read a second time forthwith; and it was ordered to a third reading.

At ten minutes after five o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Murphy of Burlington (Mr. Mariano of Quincy being in the Chair), the House recessed until the hour of six o'clock; and at that time the House was called to order with Mr. Petrolati of Ludlow in the Chair.

Ms. Clark of Melrose thereupon asked for a count of the House to ascertain if a quorum was present. The Chair (Mr. Petrolati), having determined that a quorum was not in attendance, then directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to secure the presence of a quorum.

Subsequently a roll call was taken for the purpose of ascertaining the presence of a quorum; and on the roll call 144 members were recorded as being in attendance.

[See Ye and Nay No. 257 in Supplement.]

Therefore a quorum was present.

Subsequently a statement of Ms. Fox of Boston was spread upon the records, as follows:

MR. SPEAKER: I would like to call to the attention of the House the fact that I was not present in the House Chamber on the previous roll call due to official business in another part of the State House.

Under suspension of the rules, on motion of Mr. Murphy of Burlington, the bill was read a third time, its title having been changed by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to read: "An Act establishing fiscal stability measures for fiscal year 2010."

Statement of Representative Fox of Boston.

Quorum,— ye and nay No. 257.

Said committee reported recommending that the bill be amended by inserting after section 10 the following three sections:

"SECTION 10A. Said section 3F of said chapter 23A, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting after the word 'same', in line 19, the following word:— expansion.

SECTION 10B. Said section 3F of said chapter 23A, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting after the word 'the', in lines 33, 38, 46, 58, the following word:— expansion.

SECTION 10C. Said section 3F of said chapter 23A, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting after the word 'certified', in line 104, the following word:— expansion."

The report was accepted; and the amendment was adopted.

After remarks on the question on passing the bill, as amended, to be engrossed, Mr. Jones of North Reading asked for a count of the House to ascertain if a quorum was present. The Chair (Mr. Petrolati), having determined that a quorum was not in attendance, then directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to secure the presence of a quorum.

Subsequently a roll call was taken for the purpose of ascertaining the presence of a quorum; and on the roll call 151 members were recorded as being in attendance.

[See Ye and Nay No. 258 in Supplement.]

Therefore a quorum was present.

After remarks on the question on passing the bill, as amended, to be engrossed (Mr. Donato of Medford being in the Chair), Ms. Callahan of Sutton moved to amend it by inserting after section 44 (as published) the following section:

"SECTION 42A. Provided further that a detailed itemized budget relative to house and senate operations contained in any legislative accounts including; line items 9500-0000, 9600-0000, and 9700-0000 shall be filed by the offices of house speaker and senate president with both the house and senate committees on ways and means prior to the release of the annual house and senate budgets for the proposed fiscal year budget and any changes made to said itemized operations in such legislative accounts within deficiency budgets shall be duly noted. These itemized budgets and changes shall be made available to all members of the General Court."

Pending the question on adoption of the amendment, Mr. Murphy of Burlington moved to amend it by striking out the proposed section and inserting in place thereof the following:

"SECTION 42A. Any information transmitted to the state comptroller regarding expenditures made by the general court shall be made available by the state comptroller to the public unless otherwise privileged or confidential pursuant to any law, rule or regulation."

After debate on the question on adoption of the further amendment, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays at the request of Ms. Callahan of Sutton; and on the roll call 119 members voted in the affirmative and 35 in the negative.

[See Ye and Nay No. 259 in Supplement.]

Therefore the further amendment was adopted, thus precluding a vote on the pending amendment.

Mr. Jones of North Reading and other members then moved to amend the bill by inserting after section 42A (inserted by amendment) the following section:

Quorum.

Quorum,— ye and nay No. 258.

Further amendment adopted,— ye and nay No. 259.

“SECTION 42B. Section 1 of chapter 124 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following new subsection:—

(v) adopt policies and procedures, in consultation with the county sheriffs, establishing an optional fee, of a maximum of $5, to be paid by inmates for daily room and board at any county or state correctional facility. Based on an inmate’s ability to pay, the commissioner or a county sheriff may charge each inmate a reasonable daily room and board fee on a sliding scale. The commissioner of corrections may deduct such fee from the inmate’s account as provided for in section 48A of chapter 127. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, room and board shall not be denied if the inmate is incapable of paying the daily room and board fee.”

After debate on the question on adoption of the amendment, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays at the request of Mr. Evangelidis of Holden; and on the roll call 41 members voted in the affirmative and 111 in the negative.

[See Ye and Nay No. 260 in Supplement.]

Therefore the amendment was rejected.

Mr. Jones of North Reading and other members then moved to amend the bill by inserting after section 42A (inserted by amendment) the following section:

“SECTION 42B. Section 22C of chapter 32 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition is hereby amended by striking out, in line 29, the figure ‘2025’ and inserting in place thereof the following figure:— 2040.”

After debate on the question on adoption of the amendment, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays at the request of Mr. Peterson of Grafton; and on the roll call 17 members voted in the affirmative and 138 in the negative.

[See Ye and Nay No. 261 in Supplement.]

Therefore the amendment was rejected.

Mr. Petrolati of Ludlow being in the Chair,— Mr. Jones of North Reading and other members then moved to amend the bill by striking subsection (g) of section 43 (as published). After debate the amendment was rejected.

After remarks on the question on passing the bill, as amended, to be engrossed, Mr. Sannicandro of Ashland moved to amend it by inserting after section 42A (inserted by amendment) the following section:

“SECTION 42B. Not less than $500,000 shall be given to the town of Framingham for the purpose of reimbursement in lieu of taxes on state-owned land.”

The amendment was rejected.

Ms. Peisch of Wellesley then moved to amend the bill in item 7004-0102 by adding the following: “; providing, further, that not less than $200,000 shall be expended for the St. Francis House of Boston”; and in said item by striking out the figures: “33,581,684” and inserting in place there of the following figures: “$36,281,684”.

The amendments were rejected.

Mr. Jones of North Reading and other members then moved to amend the bill (as published) by adding the following two sections:

Amendment rejected,— ye and nay No. 260.

Amendment rejected,— ye and nay No. 261.

“SECTION 46. Sections 53, 56, 57, and 59 of chapter 27 of the acts of 2009 are hereby repealed.

SECTION 47. Section 48 shall be effective July 1, 2010.”

Mr. Murphy of Burlington then moved to amend the amendment by striking out proposed section 47 and inserting in place thereof the following section:

“SECTION 47. Notwithstanding any special or general law to the contrary, section 46 shall not take effect until such time as the executive office for administration and finance and the department of revenue has furnished a study of its impact on the state’s economy and revenue cost to the commonwealth, including, but not limited to, a distributional analysis showing the impact on taxpayers of varying income levels, the current practice of other states, any anticipated change in employment and ancillary economic activity to the house and senate committees on ways and means and until legislation has been filed and passed pursuant to Part 2, Chapter I, Section I, Article II of the Constitution.”

After debate on the question on adoption of the further amendment, the Chair (Mr. Petrolati of Ludlow) placed before the House the question on suspension of Rule 1A in order that the House might continue to meet to meet beyond the hour of nine o’clock P.M.

On the question on suspension of Rule 1A, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays, as required under the provisions of said rule; and on the roll 137 members voted in the affirmative and 17 in the negative.

[See Ye and Nay No. 262 in Supplement.]

Therefore Rule 1A was suspended.

After further debate on the question on adoption of the further amendment, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays at the request of Mr. Hill of Ipswich; and on the roll call 103 members voted in the affirmative and 51 in the negative.

[See Ye and Nay No. 263 in Supplement.]

Therefore the further amendment was adopted.

The amendment, as amended, then also was adopted.

Mr. Jones of North Reading and other members then moved to amend the bill by adding the following two sections:

“SECTION 48. Section 55 of chapter 27 of the acts of 2009 is hereby repealed.

SECTION 49. Section 48 shall be effective July 1, 2010.”

Pending the question on adoption of the amendment, Mr. Murphy of Burlington moved to amend it by striking out proposed section 49 and inserting in place thereof the following section:

“SECTION 49. Notwithstanding any special or general law to the contrary, section 48 shall not take effect until such time as the executive office for administration and finance and the department of revenue has furnished a study of its impact on the state’s economy and revenue cost to the commonwealth, including, but not limited to, a distributional analysis showing the impact on taxpayers of varying income levels, the current practice of other states, any anticipated change in employment and ancillary economic activity to the house and senate committees on ways and means and until legislation has been filed and passed pursuant to Part 2, Chap. 1, Sec. 1, Art. II of the Constitution.”

Suspension of Rule 1A.

Rule 1A suspended,— ye and nay No. 262.

Further amendment adopted,— ye and nay No. 263.

Further amendment adopted,—yea and nay No. 264.

After debate on the question on adoption of the further amendment, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays at the request of Mr. Peterson of Grafton; and on the roll call 99 members voted in the affirmative and 54 in the negative.

[See Yea and Nay No. 264 in Supplement.]

Therefore the further amendment was adopted.

The amendment, as amended, then also was adopted.

Mr. Jones of North Reading and other members of the House then moved to amend the bill by adding the following section:

“SECTION 50. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, salaries payable by the commonwealth shall be reduced by one per cent; provided, the reduction will apply to each full time employee or officer, whether or not elected, in all branches, offices, departments, agencies and authorities of the commonwealth, whose compensation is partially or fully funded by (i) state appropriation; (ii) receipts from bond revenues; (iii) federally funded or reimbursed programs; (iv) trust funds as defined in section 1 of chapter 29 of the General Laws; or (v) authority expenditures; provided further, if certain collective bargaining agreements prevent the salary reduction from applying to certain officers and employees who have rights under such collective bargaining agreements, a number of officers and employees whose aggregate salaries equal one percent of total salaries covered under such collective bargaining agreements shall be laid off.”

Pending the question on adoption of the amendment, Mr. Bradley of Hingham moved to amend it by adding the following paragraph:

“Notwithstanding any special or general law to the contrary, the provisions of this section shall not take effect until such time as the executive office for administration and finance has furnished a study of its impact on the state’s economy and revenue cost to the commonwealth, including, but not limited to, a distributional analysis showing the impact on taxpayers of varying income levels, the current practice of other states, any anticipated change in employment and ancillary economic activity to the house and senate committees on ways and means and until legislation has been filed and passed pursuant to Part 2, Chap. 1, Sec. 1, Art. II of the Constitution.”

After debate on the question on adoption of the further amendment, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays at the request of Mr. Peterson of Grafton; and on the roll call 137 members voted in the affirmative and 17 in the negative.

[See Yea and Nay No. 265 in Supplement.]

Therefore the further amendment was adopted.

The amendment, as amended, then also was adopted.

Mr. Jones of North Reading and other members then moved to amend the bill by adding the following section:

“SECTION 51. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, there is hereby a temporary prohibition on all promotions, transfers, new hires, and position upgrades implemented for all permanent and temporary positions in all branches, offices, departments, agencies and authorities of the commonwealth. Said temporary prohibition shall be in effect during the time period beginning on December 1, 2009 and ending on June 30, 2010. The secretary of administration and finance may establish a restricted waiver for said prohibition; provided however, that any such waiver shall ensure that all promotions, transfers, new hires, and position upgrades are essential and directly related to protecting the public health and safety. Any waiver approved by the secretary shall be certified in writing and placed on file with the human resources division of the commonwealth.”

Further amendment adopted,—yea and nay No. 265.

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Turner of Dennis then moved to amend the bill by adding the following section:

“SECTION 51. Chapter 70B, Section 15 (b) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof:—

The authority shall not recapture commonwealth and authority assistance for any assisted structure that is sold or leased to a commonwealth charter school or applicant for a commonwealth charter school or if such assisted structure is part of a combined district/municipal building use plan that includes a change in use of an assisted structure and use of a different school building or municipal building for educational purposes is sold or leased to a commonwealth charter school or applicant to for a commonwealth charter school.”

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Murphy of Burlington then moved to amend the bill in section 28 (as published), in lines 423 and 430, by inserting after the words “authorized producers”, in each instance, the words “, producer associations”;

After section 33 (as published) by inserting the following two sections:

“SECTION 35A. Item 4403-2000 of said section 2 of said chapter 27 is hereby further amended by striking out the words ‘60 days before promulgating any eligibility or benefit changes’ and inserting in place thereof the following:— 90 days before promulgating any eligibility or benefit changes.

SECTION 35B. Said section 2 of said chapter 27 is hereby further amended by inserting after the item 4513-1002 the following item:—

4513-1010	For the department of public health; provided, that said department may expend not more than $2,000,000 in revenue received from the collection of federal financial participation for early intervention services delivered to Medicaid-eligible children by developmental educators and professionals in related disciplines; provided further, that nothing in this item shall give rise to or shall be construed as giving rise to enforceable legal rights to any such services or an enforceable entitlement to the services funded in this item; and provided further, that the revenue may be used to pay for current and prior year claims	$2,000,000”;

and by adding the following two sections:

“SECTION 51. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary not less than $19,044,046 shall be appropriated to item 4190-0100 in fiscal year 2010.

SECTION 52. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary not less than $25,401,925 shall be appropriated to item 4180-0100 in fiscal year 2010.”.

The amendments were adopted.
