UNCORRECTED PROOF OF THE JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE.

Tuesday, November 20, 2007.

Met at one minute past one o'clock P.M. (Mr. Rosenberg in the Chair).

Distinguished Guest.

There being no objection, the President handed the gavel to Ms. Creem for the purpose of an introduction. Ms. Creem then introduced Rabbi Robert Miller as follows:

I am very pleased and proud to introduce my Rabbi, Robert Miller. Among many distinctions, my Rabbi is a Republican. Other than that one issue, he is one of my favorite people. Rabbi Miller is a wonderful spiritual leader in that he was a visiting rabbi at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Nursing Home. I'm very proud of today that this is my second opportunity to share or be in the State House in the presence of my rabbi. Rabbi Miller was the chaplain of the Framingham Correctional Institution. He was very helpful there and gave spiritual guidance to anyone who sought it. He is a wonderful, humble person. He is an effective counselor for many people. In the Jewish religion, we call Rabbi Miller a mensch. I am so proud to be with you today. Thank you.

On motion of Mr. Brown, the Senator's remarks were ordered printed in the Journal of the Senate.

Petition.

Ms. Fargo presented a petition (subject to Joint Rule 12) of Susan C. Fargo, Kathi-Anne Reinstein, Steven A. Baddour, Paul J. Donato and other members of the General Court for legislation to establish the Commonwealth Early Detection and Treatment Research Fund,— and the same was referred, under Senate Rule 20, to the committees on Rules of the two branches, acting concurrently.

Committee Discharged.

Mr. Downing, for the committee on Ethics and Rules, reported, asking to be discharged from further consideration of the Senate Bill ensuring a fair and reasonable administrative process (Senate, No. 2415),— and recommending that the same be recommitted to the Senate committee on Ways and Means.
Under Senate Rule 36, the report was considered forthwith and accepted.

PAPERS FROM THE HOUSE.

Petitions were referred, in concurrence, as follows:

Orders of the Day.

The Orders of the Day were considered, as follows:

The Senate bills

Relative to the retirement allowance for certain teachers (Senate, No. 1557);

Relative to the Randolph Public Library (Senate, No. 2396); and

Further regulating the granting of temporary licenses for the sale of wines at auctions (Senate, No. 2405);

Were severally read a third time and passed to be engrossed.

Severally sent to the House for concurrence.

The House Bill establishing a sick leave bank for Lynda Graham-Meho, an employee of the Department of Public Health (House, No. 4304),— was read a third time and passed to be engrossed, in concurrence.

The House Bill authorizing the appointment of certain persons as firefighters in the city of Fall River (House, No. 4089),— was read a second time and ordered to a third reading.

The Senate Bill for a healthy Massachusetts safer alternatives to toxic chemicals (Senate, No. 2406),— was considered; the main question being on ordering the bill to a third reading.

Pending the question on ordering the bill to a third reading, on motion of Mr. Tisei, the further consideration thereof was postponed until the next session.

There being no objection, during consideration of the Orders of the Day, the following matters were considered, to wit:

Matter Taken Out of the Notice Section of the Calendar.

There being no objection, the following matter was taken out of the Notice Section of the Calendar and considered as follows:

The House Bill relative to the change from conservation use to general municipal use of a portion of the property known as Ridge Hill Reservation in the town of Needham (House, No. 4122),— was read a second time, ordered to a third reading, read a third time and passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, its title having been changed by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to read as follows; “An Act authorizing a change of use of certain conservation land in the town of Needham”.

Reports of a Committee.

By Mr. Panagiotakos, for the committee on Ways and Means, that the House Bill removing an agricultural preservation restriction in the town of Raynham known as the Borden Colony (House, No. 26, amended),— ought to pass, with an amendment adding the following section:—

“SECTION 2. As a condition of the execution of the release authorized in section 1, the department of agricultural resources shall have received, or shall be satisfied that it shall receive, mitigation for the loss of the parcel of farmland subject to the agricultural preservation restriction prior to the execution of a certificate of release for the parcel. The town of Raynham may provide such mitigation by: (1) transferring a parcel of land under the care, custody, management and control of the board of selectmen and dedicated for general municipal purposes to the conservation commission and dedicating such parcel for agricultural purposes; (2) acquiring, if no suitable parcel can be transferred to the conservation commission, a parcel of land or an agricultural preservation restriction on private or public land as defined in section 31 of chapter 184 of the General Laws; or (3) paying the department $17,800 to use to purchase a future agricultural restriction in the vicinity of the town of Raynham. Land transferred or acquired under this section shall be dedicated or restricted to agricultural purposes and shall be under the jurisdiction of the conservation commission. The parcel dedicated under this section shall be of equal or greater size and suitability for agricultural purposes when compared to the parcel described in section 1 as determined by the department.”.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Pacheco, and the bill was read a second time and was amended, as recommended by the committee on Ways and Means.

The bill, as amended, was then ordered to a third reading, read a third time and passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, its title having been changed by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to read as follows: “An Act removing an agricultural restriction in the town of Raynham known as the Borden Colony”.

By Mr. Panagiotakos, for the committee on Ways and Means, that the Senate Bill relative to harbormaster training certification (Senate, No. 509, changed and amended),— ought to pass, with an amendment inserting after the word “but”, in line 21, the following word:— “not”; and by striking out, in lines 45 to 63, inclusive, the proposed section 3, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

“Section 19C. (a) There shall be established and set up on the books of the commonwealth a separate fund to be known as the Harbormaster Training Trust Fund, into which shall be deposited monies received by the commonwealth from all sources pertaining to harbormaster training from training fees paid by municipalities, training fees paid by individuals, sums received by the commonwealth from the federal government as grants and appropriations, state grants and appropriations and private contributions and gifts. The fund shall only be used as follows:

(1) for payment of general administrative expenses of the harbormaster training council, but such expenses shall not exceed 25 per cent of the total expenditures in a fiscal year which are spent on administrative expenditures; provided, however, that expenditures may be made for the compensation of a staff person as those services are deemed necessary by the council; and (2) for the procurement and funding of harbormaster training by the council or its designees.

(b) The state treasurer shall receive and deposit all revenues transmitted to him under subsection (a) in a manner that will ensure the highest rate of interest available consistent with the safety of the Harbormaster Training Trust Fund and all interest accrued shall be deposited into the Harbormaster Training and any unexpended balance in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not revert and shall be available for expenditures in the subsequent fiscal year.”

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Tarr, and the bill was read a second time and was amended, as recommended by the committee on Ways and Means.

The bill (Senate, No. 509, amended) was then ordered to a third reading, read a third time and passed to be engrossed. Sent to the House for concurrence.

By Mr. Panagiotakos, for the committee on Ways and Means, that the Senate Bill regarding notification of oil and hazardous waste material release (Senate, No. 539, changed),— ought to pass.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. O’Leary, and the bill was read a second time, ordered to a third reading, read a third time and, after remarks, was passed to be engrossed, its title having been changed by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to read as follows: “An Act further regulating notification of oil or hazardous waste material release”.

Sent to the House for concurrence.

Orders of the Day.

The Orders of the Day were further considered, as follows:

The Senate Bill to establish standards for long-term care insurance (Senate, No. 2367, amended),— was considered, the main question being on passing the bill to be engrossed.

The pending motion, previously moved by Ms. Jehlen, to lay the matter on the table was considered; and it was negatived.

Pending the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, Ms. Jehlen and Ms. Chandler moved to amend the bill (as printed) by inserting after the word “practices,” in line 30, the following words:— “to encourage applicants’ choice of long term services in the least restrictive setting appropriate to their needs,” ; and by inserting after the word “services”, in line 84, the following words:— “including home care services,” and by inserting the follow-ing section:—

“SECTION 6. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the group insurance commission shall have until July 1, 2010 to develop the plan for long term care insurance as required by section 1 of this act.”

After remarks, the amendment was adopted.

The question on passing the bill (Senate, No. 2367, amended) to be engrossed was determined by a call of the yeas and nays, at eleven minutes past four o’clock P.M., on motion of Ms. Chandler, as follows, to wit (yeas 37 — nays 0) [Yeas and Nays No. 142]:

The Senate Bill relative to the administration of elections to be held in the year 2008 (Senate, No. 2414, amended),— came from the House passed to be engrossed, in concurrence with amendments striking out section 7 and inserting in place thereof the following section:

“SECTION 7. Notwithstanding sections 34 and 70E of chapter 53 of the General Laws or any general or special law to the contrary, the state secretary may print the names of candidates for special state primaries on the same ballot for use at the presidential primary in any city or town within a district in which a special state primary is called for February 5, 2008. The appearance of the order of offices on presidential primary ballots in 2008 on which state primary candidates are also printed shall be at the discretion of the state secretary.”; and by striking out section 14 and inserting in place thereof the following section:

“SECTION 14. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the state secretary shall have the authority to add or change any dates relating to the presidential primary held on February 5, 2008 as he deems necessary for the orderly administration of the election by providing notice of such change to any affected person, by filing notice with the rules and regulations division, by posting on his website and by whatever other means he deems appropriate.”.

The rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Berry, and the House amendment was considered forthwith and adopted, in concurrence.

The House Bill authorizing the Commissioner of the Division of Capital Asset Management and Maintenance to convey certain land to Sullivan McLaughlin, Inc. (House, No. 4186, amended),— came from the House with the endorsement that the House had NON-concurred in the Senate amendment striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the text of Senate document numbered 2398.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Ms. Walsh, and the matter was considered forthwith. On motion of the same Senator, the Senate receded from its amendment.

Report of a Committee.

By Mr. Panagiotakos, for the committee on Ways and Means, that the Senate Bill authorizing the development of a regional education, training and skills center in the city of Taunton (Senate, No. 53, changed),— ought to pass, with an amendment in section 9, by striking out the first paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:—

“There shall be established an education and training collaborative to develop, in conjunction with the Taunton Development Corporation, the regional education, training and skills alliance center. The collaborative be managed by a board of directors which shall consist of 13 members as follows: the presidents of Bridgewater State College, the Massachusetts Maritime Academy, Massasoit Community College, Cape Cod Community College, Bristol Community College, Wheaton College, the Massachusetts Federation of Teachers, the Massachusetts Teachers Association, the Massachusetts AFL-CIO, the Taunton Area Chamber of Commerce, or their respective designees; the chancellor of the University of Massachusetts at Dartmouth; the commissioner of mental retardation, or his designee; and the director of the Southeastern Regional Planning and Economic Development District, or his designee. The board may, by majority vote, increase its membership to include the presidents of other institutions of higher education housing their main campuses in Southeastern Massachusetts, or their designees. Members of the board of directors may vote according to the terms of the education collaborative agreement but the land and property management of the center shall be the responsibility of the Taunton Development Corporation.”.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Pacheco, and the bill was read a second time and was amended, as recommended by the committee on Ways and Means.

Order Adopted.

The President in the Chair, on motion of Ms. Menard,—

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet again tomorrow at eleven o'clock A.M., and that the Clerk be directed to dispense with the printing of a calendar.

Adjournment in Memory of Father Edward Boyle.

The Senator from Suffolk and Middlesex, Mr. Tolman, requested that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in memory of Father Edward Boyle of Weston, Massachusetts.

Father Boyle was the former Director of the Labor Guild and Institute of Industrial Relations. He once said: "The gap between worker and manager, between rich and poor, threatens the very moral foundation of society." Father Boyle spent much of his life dedicated to bridging this gap, helping working families across the Commonwealth.

Father Boyle will be missed by his family and his many friends in the labor movement.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of Father Edward Boyle, at nineteen minutes past nine o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. McGee, the Senate adjourned to meet again tomorrow at eleven o'clock A.M.
