

BASIC INFECTION PREVENTION IN THE AMBULATORY CARE SETTING

Don't miss this free online training series on the role of ambulatory care setting staff in preventing the spread of infections to themselves, colleagues, families and patients.

The series is designed for all staff working at primary care clinics and doctor's offices, including both clinical and non-clinical staff.

Each online module can be taken separately and takes between 20-35 minutes to complete.

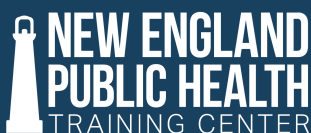

TRAIN COURSE ID 1070551 - FOUNDATIONS OF INFECTION PREVENTION IN AMBULATORY CARE SETTING
TRAIN COURSE ID 1070552 - STANDARD PRECAUTIONS: THE BASICS OF HAND HYGIENE
TRAIN COURSE ID 1070553 - STANDARD PRECAUTIONS: SAFE COUGH PRACTICES
TRAIN COURSE ID 1070554 - STANDARD PRECAUTIONS: PERSONAL PROTECTIVE EQUIP/SAFE SURFACES
TRAIN COURSE ID 1070555 - TRANSMISSION-BASED PRECAUTIONS IN THE AMBULATORY CARE SETTING

Subject Matter Experts:

Louise-Marie Dembry, MD, FACP, MS, MBA, Director, VA CT Healthcare System

David B. Banach, MD, MPH, Head of Infection Prevention at UConn Health

GO TO CT.TRAIN.ORG AND REGISTER TODAY!

Contact kathi.traugh@yale.edu

PUBLIC HEALTH LEARNING NETWORK
Educating Professionals,
Elevating Practice.